[COMMUNICATED. HE WILL NOT WOO AGAIN.

Twas but a word, a careless word, In pride and anger spoken : But with that word the chain which bound

Two loving hearts, was broken; The hasty wrath has passed away;

The bitter words remain; In vain the lady weeps and sighs, He will not woo again.

No other love may light her path; No other move his heart; Yet changing seasons come and go, And find them still apart;

Her once bright cheek is paler now, His bears a trace of pain, Their days are sorrowful, and yet He will not woo again.

They meet as strangers, calm and cold, As calmly, coldly, part,

And none may guess that tranquil mien Conceals a tortured heart. To him the world has lost its light;

For her all joys are vain; Nor hope nor memory brings relief-

He will not woo again. Alas, that love long tried and warm, Should wither in an hour;

Alas, that pride o'er human hearts, Should wield such fearful power; Oh! weep thou not for those who die-For them all tears are vain;

But weep o'er living hearts grown cold,

Who ne'er may love again! AN ENGLISH LETTER FROM THE Siamensium The election will be held at the following To S. E. Burrows, Esquire, an American old gentleman, visited me yesterday. Sir.- When you have been entertained with me vester day evening, I beg to state truly that I observed that you are of good characters, indeed, and your conversation in regard to the occurrence at Canton was proving your being a righteous person of real hones'y and what you have stated that you have conversed with John Bowring the superintendent of British trade in China for needable provision of the Anglo Siamese Treaty moreover it is best & most invorable to all powerless and defendless nations. I beg to offer my great sincere thank for your so good friendly feeling & also for kind present of a few bottles of good American Chambaines. I have nothing to be presented to you except these few lines in myself own royal hand sealed with my private & usual royal seals or stamps which I doubt not will be pleased to you much for acceptance & keeping n your hand for my remembrance on future & for showing to your friends of Europe & Amer-

I have the honor to be your worthy good friend, S. P. P. M. MENGKUT; Major King of Siam, reigning in Seventh year.
